

2019 Yom HaShoah Art Contest

The 2019 Yom HaShoah Holocaust Remembrance ceremony will take place on Monday, May 6th, 2019 at Temple Israel. Teachers should bring their entries to Temple Israel on either Saturday, May 4 or Sunday, May 5 (9am to Noon both days) to set them up for display. Students will have their pieces exhibited at Temple Israel for the event, and the winners' pieces plus those chosen at the time of judging will be shown at the Tulsa Jewish Federation. Each year, students from the Tulsa area display art work created in response to their classroom learning at the Remembrance Day event.

Student art work can be submitted into either the middle school (grades 6-8) or high school (grades 9-12) category.

Criteria:

- “Artwork” is understood to be visual art in any medium, but is not understood to refer to film, music, dance, or drama (the performing arts).
- All artworks should be easily portable and either freestanding, or be able to sit on an easel or a tabletop.
- Artworks may be submitted by individual students or by groups of students.
- The artist/s name, school and teacher should appear on the artwork in a place that is not visible when displayed (such as the bottom or back of the artwork).
- A short (1-3 sentence) artist/s’ statement should accompany each artwork.
- Artworks that require batteries or electricity may not be displayed, for logistical reasons.
- Artworks that include the depiction of blood, body parts, or ashes will not be displayed.
- Artwork will be judged based on originality, attention to detail and evidence of historical research. Judges will include representatives from the Council for Holocaust Education, The Sherwin Miller Museum, and former teachers.

Prizes:

Ten finalists will be selected in the middle school category and ten in the high school category. From these 20, the following prizes will be awarded in each category:

First Place: $250

Second place: $150

Third place: $50
