

2024 Kristallnacht Art Contest

Presented by the Jewish Federation of Tulsa

ON THE NIGHT OF NOVEMBER 9–10, 1938, the Nazi regime coordinated a wave of violence against Jewish people, Jewish owned businesses, and Jewish places of worship in Nazi Germany. This nationwide riot became known in German as Kristallnacht, or in English, the “Night of Broken Glass.” The name “Kristallnacht” is a reference to the shattered glass from store windows that littered the streets during and after the riot.

THEME - Critical Moments: The Path to the Holocaust

Students are invited to create artwork that reflects upon critical moments in Holocaust history. For example: Kristallnacht, the opening of Dachau (the first concentration camp) in 1933, Germany’s invasion of Poland, The Wannsee conference, the voyage of the Saint Louis, the Nuremberg laws...etc

All Oklahoma Middle and High School students (grades 6-12) are eligible to enter the contest. Art teachers are encouraged to utilize the Kristallnacht art contest as a resource for meeting the Oklahoma Academic Standards for Holocaust education, specifically art and social studies standards including research.
